

Inhalt:

WOLFF, K. D.: Preface · SCHUCHARDT, G.: Autonomy as constant dialogue. Opening address · ERICHSEN, H.-U.: Autonomy and Responsibility. Appeal for a self-determined initiative · LULLIES, St.: Setting up checks and balances. National approaches to autonomy of universities. Synopsis of the case studies · AAVIKSOO, J.: Autonomy and the need for a stable environment. A case study of the University of Tartu, Estonia · BUKOVSKY, L.: Autonomy and transparency. A case study of Pavol Safarik University, Kosice, Republic of Slovakia · CHMIELECKA, E. / OSTERCZUK, A. M.: The price of autonomy. Developments in University Government Relations in Poland (based on a case study from the Warsaw School of Economics) · KOVAR, R.: The developing framework of autonomous action. A case study of the Technical University of Liberec, Czech Republic · HECHT, G.: From direct state control to limited self-government. Case study of the Technical University of Chemnitz, Saxony · KRUMINS, J. / MILJAN, T.: Autonomy and Interdependence at the University of Latvia · PAVILIONIS, R.: Autonomy as a learning process. Statement based on the experience of Vilnius University, Lithuania · ZGAGA, P.: Autonomia not Autarkia. A case study from Slovenia (University of Ljubljana) · ALDERMAN, G.: From elitist self-regulation to a marketable commodity. British Universities and the illusions of academic autonomy in a democratic society · GINKEL, H. van: Between the devil and the deep blue sea. Universities serving society · PETERSEN, N.: Autonomy and professionalism. Danish Higher Education and the problems of state interference · WOLFF, K. D.: University in search of the Golden Mean. Strategies for strengthening the standing of universities in society · »Towards the Responsible University of the Twenty-first Century«: The Erfurt Declaration on University Autonomy