

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Irmela HIJYA-KIRSCHNEREIT

Preface7

1. INTRODUCTION

Harald CONRAD and Ralph LÜTZELER

German and Japanese Social Policy in Comparative Perspective:
An Overview 11

2. DEMOGRAPHIC AND POLICY IMPLICATIONS OF THE AGING SOCIETY

ARAI Makoto

The Aging Society and the Social Security System in Japan 37

KOJIMA Hiroshi

Population Aging and Living Arrangements of the Elderly in Japan..... 51

Karin VEITH

The Aging Process in Germany and Implications for a
Needs-Oriented Social Policy 75

3. LONG-TERM CARE AND PENSION INSURANCE SYSTEMS: A COMPARISON

Paul TALCOTT

The Politics of Japan's Long-Term Care Insurance System 89

Gerhard NAEGELE and Monika REICHERT

Six Years of Long-Term Care Insurance in Germany:
An Overview 123

Iris KNÜVER and Matthias MERFERT

Long-Term Care Insurance in Germany: The Role of the Federal States. 139

Thomas KLIE

Long-Term Care Insurance in Germany and Japan:
A Comparative Comment. 149

John Creighton CAMPBELL

How Policies Differ: Long-Term Care Insurance in Japan and Germany 157

Harald CONRAD

Old Age Security in Japan: The Implications of Recent Public and Occupational Pension Reforms. 189

Winfried SCHMÄHL

Pension Policy in Germany: Major Postwar Reforms and Recent Decisions. 221

4. SPECIFIC ASPECTS OF LONG-TERM CARE
IN GERMANY AND JAPAN

Heinz ROTHGANG

Long-Term Care in Germany: Projections on Public Long-Term
Care Insurance Financing 251

Ralph LÜTZELER

Demographic and Regional Aspects of Aging and Long-Term
Care in Japan. 275

Sabine FRÜHSTÜCK

The Rhetoric of Reform: On the Institutionalization and De-Institutionalization of Old Age 299

KIMURA Rihito

Bioethical Public Policy and the Making of the 1997 Japanese
Long-Term Care Insurance Law. 335

ABOUT THE AUTHORS 351